

About Me:

My name is Radina Yotova. I am an interactive designer based in between Sofia & The Hague. Recently I've graduated a Bachelor degree in Graphic Design, BA at the Royal Academy of Arts, The Hague.

I am mainly interested in image-making and storytelling, produced and designed by means of new media technology.

Some of the topics I am passionate about are social behavior, participatory culture, network culture and computer vision.

If you feel like we have something in common, don't hesitate to contact me!
